FFA inspects the soil

On Tuesday, October 8, the FFA land judges traveled to Leigh, NE. They judged CRP land north of Leigh that morning. The Howells-Dodge FFA Chapter had 19 members, sophomores through seniors, that traveled to Leigh. Over 400 FFA members from 20 different chapters in Nebraska participated. There were 4 different judging sites with different qualities of land to judge like depth of soil, soil texture, permeability, etc. All of the members were split into 4 groups and each group was split in half. One half of the members went to judge, while the other half sat through educational lectures about the history of the soil, the importance of conserving our soil, etc.

The results from the day included Levi Belina receiving a purple ribbon. He placed 17th out of 437 participants and will be representing Howells-Dodge at State. Receiving a blue ribbons were: Logan Nelson in 23rd place; R.J. Bayer, 42nd place; Carter Throener, 45th place; and Austin Steffensmeier, 63rd place. Gavel bangs as mock trial begins

This year's thrilling case focuses on Ms. Kelly Panenka who supposedly violated her contract with Rabona Foods. The varsity team consisting of Jill Grovijohn, Alex Recker, and Madyson Cech are taking on the task to prove her innocent. These talented lawyers will be able to do this with the help of their amazing witnesses Alyssa Cappellano, Kaydence Cech, Nina Vogel and Michaela Hegemann. They will show the court that she did not violate her contract, but rather prove that she did everything perfectly. There is strong evidence to show her innocence, so the green team will have to take on the tough task of proving her guilty. Our green team's lawyers are Brooklyn Macholan, Harley Williams, and Jadyen Burenheide. Helping them prove Ms. Panenka guilty will take the help of their key witnesses played by Jordan Howell, Layla Freeman, Shelby Risch, McKenna Snyder, Sasha Perrin, Daymen Jurisch, and Lexi Tupaz.
